GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it hath been repreſented to Us, That, immediately before the Opening of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, a great Number of Perſons were collected in Fields in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis, by Advertiſements and Hand-Bills, and that divers inflammatory Diſcourſes were delivered to the Perſons ſo collected, and divers Proceedings were had, tending to create groundleſs Jealouſy and Diſcontent, and to endanger the Publick Peace, and the Quiet and Safety of Our faithful Subjects: And whereas it hath been alſo repreſented to Us, That divers ſeditious and treaſonable Papers have been lately diſtributed, tending to excite evil-diſpoſed Perſons to Acts endangering Our Royal Perſon: And whereas ſuch Proceedings have been followed, on the Day on which the preſent Seſſion of Parliament commenced, by Acts of Tumult and Violence, and by daring and highly criminal Outrages, in direct Violation of the Publick Peace, to the immediate Danger of Our Royal Perſon, and to the Interruption of Our Paſſage to and from Our Parliament: And whereas great Uneaſineſs and Anxiety hath been produced in the Minds of Our faithful Subjects, by Rumours and Apprehenſions that ſeditious and unlawful Aſſemblies are intended to be held by evil-diſpoſed Perſons, and that ſuch other criminal Practices as aforeſaid are intended to be repeated: We, therefore, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Conſtables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to uſe the utmoſt Diligence to diſcourage, prevent, and ſuppreſs all ſeditious and unlawful Aſſemblies: And We do ſpecially enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects, who ſhall have Cauſe to ſuſpect that any ſuch Aſſemblies are intended to be held in any Part of Our Kingdom, to give the earlieſt Information thereof to the Magiſtrates of the ſeveral Diſtricts within which it ſhall be ſuſpected that the ſame are intended to be held; and if ſuch Aſſemblies ſhall, nevertheleſs, in any Caſe, be actually held, to be aiding and aſſiſting, on being required thereto by the Civil Magiſtrate, in cauſing Perſons delivering inflammatory Diſcourſes in ſuch Aſſemblies, and other principal Actors therein, to be forthwith apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law. And We have alſo thought fit, by and with the Advice aforeſaid, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Conſtables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to be in like Manner aiding and aſſiſting in bringing to Juſtice all Perſons diſtributing ſuch ſeditious and treaſonable Papers as aforeſaid.

St. James's, November 14.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Merchants, Bankers, Traders and other Inhabitants of the City of London, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Merchants, Bankers, Traders and other Inhabitants of London, deeply intereſted in the Preſervation of ſocial Order, feel it their Duty at this Time to approach the Throne to expreſs their Concern, Indignation and Abhorrence at the Outrages which were committed on the firſt Day of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, by which your Majeſty's Royal Perſon became expoſed to Inſult, and even to Danger, and the Freedom of Parliament was groſsly violated.

Sire, the Affection which all true-hearted Britons entertain for your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, manifeſted by their faithful Attachment under every Viciſſitude of public Affairs, has hitherto added Luſtre to the national Character.

The Merchants, Bankers, Traders and other Inhabitants of London upon a former Occaſion in the moſt ſolemn Manner pledged themſelves to the Support of the excellent Conſtitution of theſe Realms, and made a public Declaration that they would ſtand united in its Defence; their ſubſequent Conduct has teſtified to the World their firm Adherence to the Tenor of that Declaration. They beſeech your Majeſty that you will be pleaſed now to receive the Repetition of their Aſſurance that they will by their Example promote Obedience to the Laws; that they will uphold and maintain the Conſtitution of theſe Realms, eſtabliſhed as it is in King, Lords and Commons; and that they will on every Occaſion ſupport and defend your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Authority.

It is their firm Reliance that in Sentiment and in Conduct the great Body of your Majeſty's Subjects throughout the united Kingdoms will fully coincide; that ſuch an Unanimity muſt ſecure the public Tranquillity, and will beſt enable your Majeſty to effectuate your Majeſty's declared Intentions of obtaining for your People the Bleſſings of ſuch a Peace as will be conſiſtent with the Glory, the Intereſts and the Safety of the Nation.

[Preſented by Sir Richard Neave, Bart. Beeſton Long, Eſq; P. J. Thelluſon, Eſq; E. Forſter, Eſq; Alexander Aubert, and D. Giles, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants and Viſitors of the City of Bath, impreſſed with the moſt lively Senſe of the Advantages we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, beg Leave to approach your Throne to offer our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majeſty on your late providential Eſcape from Aſſaſſination

Aſſaſſination, to ratify our Abhorrence of the treaſonable Outrage made on your ſacred Perſon, and to expreſs our firm Reſolution to maintain and ſupport with our Lives and Fortunes our free and happy Conſtitution.

We conceive, Sir, that if any Thing can aggravate the Crime we now deplore, it is the Perpetration of it during your Majeſty's Progreſs to exerciſe the greateſt of your regal Functions, the Meeting of your Parliament: The Attempt was the more audacious as it meant to controul the Proceedings of the grand Council of the Nation: Such a flagrant Violation of the Public Peace we reprobate in the ſtrongeſt Manner; with the ſincereſt Hopes that the Authors and Abettors of it will be brought to condign Puniſhment; and that through the Wiſdom of your Parliament all ſeditious and tumultuous Meetings, tending evidently to Anarchy and Confuſion, may, by ſalutary Laws, be effectually ſuppreſſed.

Contemplating the miſerable State of France, we are firmly reſolved to rally round your Majeſty's Throne as the beſt Safeguard of our Religion, Property and Laws.

Warmly impreſſed with ſuch Sentiments, which we are ſatisfied are the Sentiments of the People at large, we implore the Throne of Grace to continue, as it has hitherto done, to ſhed its ſaving Influence over your Royal Perſon, to inſpire thoſe who have dared to raiſe their Hands againſt it with deep Contrition for their Crime, and every Subject of the Realm with Love and Affection for your Majeſty, and with Submiſſion to the Laws.

[Preſented by James Moore O'Donnel, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common Council aſſembled, thus by our Duty compelled, acknowledge the divine Deliverance of your ſacred Perſon from ſeditious Stratagem and audacious Tumult; an Event momentous to Reflexion and auſpicious from its Conſequence!

In the Fullneſs of Deteſtation your loyal Subjects advert to the Malignity of inſulting Faction; and execrate the Deſperation of infatuated Deluſion: In the Exultation of Gratitude they contemplate the Bleſſing of your Majeſty's Safety, and direct the Repoſe of their Confidence to the ſupreme Source of all Protection.

Long may your Majeſty abide in Vindication of the Britiſh Conſtitution, and firm Unanimity give Exemption from Danger and Diſquietude. Thus ſhall your gracious Exertions ſecure the Excellence of our ſacred Eſtabliſhment, fruſtrate the Attempts of inſidious Combination, and confer the Proſperity of your Kingdoms, as the happy Recompence of ſtedfaſt Fidelity.

Given under our Common Seal the 6th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by Lord Viſcount Weymouth and the Maſter of the Rolls, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, humbly to expreſs our Abhorrence and Indignation at the late daring Inſult and outrageous Attempt on your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

We lament, with the deepeſt Concern, the Depravity and Wickedneſs of the Inſtigators and Promoters of ſuch vile Meaſures, as well as the Folly of thoſe miſguided Perſons, who are ſo far deluded as not only to overlook the ſolid Advantages they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, but ſeek and endeavour, by the moſt inſidious Means, to alienate the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects from their Allegiance, and to overturn and deſtroy our happy Conſtitution.

We ſincerely hope, that the Authors and Abettors of Crimes ſo atrocious will be ſpeedily diſcovered and brought to condign Puniſhment, and that others may be thereby deterred from all ſimilar Attempts.

That your Majeſty may long, very long, reign in the Hearts of all your People, and in the Enjoyment of Health, Peace and Happineſs, is the ſincere Wiſh and earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol.

[Preſented by the Marquis of Worceſter and the Right Hon. Lord Sheffield, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, at a General Meeting aſſembled at the Seſſions Houſe for the ſaid County, on Friday the 6th Day of November, 1795.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, truly ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we, in common with all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is with equal Sorrow and Indignation we perceive that there are any of our Fellow Subjects ſo loſt to every Sentiment of Loyalty, Virtue and Religion, as to be capable of perpetrating the late atrocious Act of Violence againſt your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

As Magiſtrates intruſted with the Exerciſe of Civil Authority within this opulent County, we deſire particularly to expreſs upon this Occaſion our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of that heinous Violation of the public Peace, and Defiance of all legal Government; and we humbly intreat your Majeſty to believe, that we will, in our individual as well as in our collective Capacities, exert our utmoſt Endeavours to diſcover, and bring to Puniſhment, the Exciters and Actors in this moſt horrid and deteſtable Outrage: That we will uſe our utmoſt Vigilance to repreſs every Attempt to diſturb the Public Peace, and to enforce a due Obedience to the Laws, and to protect, as far as we are or may be authorized by Law, the Perſons and Properties of all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects within our Juriſdiction.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting,
W. Mainwaring, Chairman.

[Preſented by William Mainwaring, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Middleſex.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, anxiouſly deſire to aſſure your Majeſty that we have received, with deep Concern and Indignation, the painful Intelligence of that Inſult and Danger to which your Majeſty has been moſt cruelly and moſt undeſervedly expoſed. We conſider ſuch atrocious Conduct as a melancholy Proof that no Extent of private or of public Worth can afford a full Security againſt the impious Exceſſes of Sedition and Treaſon. But we truſt the Phrenzy of a Faction will not ſhake your Confidence in the Love of your People: We beſeech your Majeſty to form no unfavourable Inference, to our general Diſgrace, from the Outrages of lawleſs and abandoned Individuals, Miſcreants unworthy of the Name of Britiſh Subjects, diſowned and deteſted by the Nation at large. We heartily deprecate from the Engliſh Character the Imputation of ſuch guilty Deeds. Our general Prayers (we confidently affirm) are devoutly offered to the King of Kings for the long, very long, Continuance of your Majeſty's juſt Power and bright Example upon the Throne of theſe Realms. As a Part, then, of that free and loyal Nation, in whoſe Hearts you reign, we earneſtly intreat your Majeſty, upon ſo alarming an Occaſion, to believe and approve our Senſe of Abhorrence and extreme Conſternation at your Majeſty's late Perils. Our Effuſions of Gratitude for the Preſervation of a Monarch ſo truly and ſo juſtly beloved; our ardent Wiſhes and vigilant Impatience to detect the mercenary Agents, and the ſtill more criminal Abettors, of that horrid Deſign, which providentially has been defeated; and, finally, to accept our ſolemn Tender of Property and Life to defend the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty and the glorious Conſtitution of our Country againſt every Enemy, whether open or ſecret, whether Foreign or Domeſtic.

[Preſented by Sir John Mordaunt, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Tradeſmen and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your happy and providential Eſcape from the late flagrant and daring Outrage offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, when proceeding to exerciſe the moſt ſolemn Act of Government, the Meeting of your Parliament on the great and important Intereſts of this Kingdom; and to expreſs, in the moſt feeling Manner, our Indignation at an Attempt ſo manifeſtly tending to the Subverſion of all Order in the State.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a happy and loyal People, is our ſincere and fervent Prayer.

[Preſented by the Mayor and Recorder.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common Council aſſembled, think it incumbent on us to expreſs our Abhorrence of the late very alarming Attack made upon your Majeſty's Perſon; an Attack which muſt have occaſioned the greateſt Concern in the Breaſt of every true Friend to your Majeſty and the Conſtitution. Whilſt, as dutiful and loyal Subjects, we offer our Congratulations upon your Majeſty's Eſcape from perſonal Injury, we deem it a Part of the Duty we owe your Majeſty, our Country, and ourſelves, to beſeech your Majeſty to employ the moſt effectual Means to procure a ſpeedy Termination of the preſent diſaſtrous War; convinced, as we are, that under the Diſtreſſes of the Kingdom, the Bleſſings of Peace are eſſential to the Preſervation and Permanence of our excellent Conſtitution, to the Happineſs of your Majeſty, and the Proſperity of your People.

Given under our Common Seal, the 4th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Rich. Metcalfe, Mayor.

[Preſented by Sir W. M. Milner, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs our utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence of the daring Outrages lately offered to your Majeſty's Perſon, in your Majeſty's Paſſage to and from Parliament, and our hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's Safety from Injury on this audacious and flagitious Behaviour towards your Royal Perſon. We beg Leave humbly to lay before your Majeſty the earneſt Wiſhes of us your faithful Subjects, that the Authors and Abettors of Crimes ſo atrocious may be diſcovered, and receive ſuch Puniſhment as the Laws have wiſely decreed; and alſo to add our ſincere Prayers, that it may pleaſe the Almighty Diſpoſer of Events ever to protect your Royal Perſon in all Safety, and that your Majeſty may long reign over a People unanimous in every Effort for the Safety, Happineſs and Glory of their beloved and revered Sovereign.

Given under our Common Seal, this 9th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by the Earl of Pembroke, High Steward of the City of New Surum, accompanied by the Recorder and William Huſſey, Eſq; and the Hon. William Henry Bouverie, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants and Common Council of your Majeſty's antient and loyal Borough of Colcheſter in the County of Eſſex, in Common Hall aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, to expreſs our Abhorrence of the violent Outrage lately offered to your Royal Perſon by a wicked and deluded Mob, whoſe Inſolence cannot be mitigated, unleſs we ſuppoſe it to have a Source in the reſtleſs and malicious Views of the known Enemies of our Country; but the leſs excuſeable, becauſe, whilſt it endangered your Royal Perſon, it was an Attempt not leſs dangerous to the Happineſs of the whole Nation. Our Uneaſineſs is greatly augmented when we reflect that this atrocious Act was meditated in the Inſtant of diſcharging that high high and important Function of aſſembling your Parliament, thereby violating the Privilege of Parliament itſelf. The uninterrupted Exiſtence of which is indiſpenſible to the Support of our Conſtitution, our Liberty and our Laws.

Our Concern for ſo extraordinary an Inſtance of Violence is ſtill further heightened, ſcarcely conceiving it poſſible that the ſame Men, whoſe Endeavours were uſed to excite Tumult and Diſorder, would have had the Audacity to diſguiſe their Wickedneſs by a Pretence of ſeeking Peace.

Deeply impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, which we truſt are equally felt by our Countrymen at large, we beg Leave humbly to offer our unfeigned Congratulations, that the Goodneſs of the Almighty happily interpoſed to protect your Majeſty from your Enemies; aſſuring your Majeſty, that our ſincere Prayers are alſo offered that the Great Creator and Preſerver of all Men will continue his Bleſſings by giving Safety to your Royal Perſon, inſpiring thoſe who have dared to raiſe their Hands againſt it with a due Senſe of their Crimes, and a deep Contrition for the ſame, and every Subject of the Realm with that Affection for your Majeſty, and Submiſſion to your Government, abſolutely neceſſary to maintain our Conſtitution in full Force, and the mutual Happineſs of your Majeſty and your Subjects.

Given under our Great Seal, at the Moothall in the ſaid Borough, the 9th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by Sir George Jackſon, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Bridgemaſters and Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Maidenhead, in the County of Berks.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Bridgemaſters and Burgeſſes of your ancient Corporation of Maidenhead, with Impreſſions of grateful Remembrance for the happy Eſcape of your Majeſty from the late violent and moſt daring Attack made on your Royal Perſon, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our Indignation and Abhorrence of ſuch atrocious Conduct, and we deſire to join our ſincere Congratulations to the general Voice of your loving Subjects.

That your Majeſty may long enjoy, in uninterrupted Peace and Tranquillity, a Life ſo important to the Welfare and Happineſs of us and all your Subjects, and that the choiceſt Bleſſings may ever attend your Family, is our fervent and earneſt Prayer.

Given under the Common Seal of our Corporation the 9th Day of November, 1795.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of your ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, humbly approach your Majeſty with our heart-felt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from a Danger ariſing from a groſs and violent Outrage to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, as well as to the Laws and Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms. Impreſſed as we are with the ſtrongeſt Sentiments of Duty and Attachment to your Majeſty, and of Veneration for the Form of Government under which it is our Happineſs to live, we cannot reflect on an Attempt ſo atrocious without Aſtoniſhment and Horror; but whilſt we are truly thankful to the Supreme Diſpoſer of Events that it has proved abortive, we are gratified by a thorough Conviction that it will be an Occaſion of affording your Majeſty the Satisfaction, the moſt congenial to your gracious and paternal Feelings, of receiving renewed and additional Proofs of the unſhaken and unalterable Loyalty and Affection of all Claſſes of your Majeſty's Subjects.

That it may pleaſe Heaven to preſerve your Majeſty and theſe Kingdoms from foreign Enemies and domeſtic Traitors, and that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free, a loyal and grateful People, is our ſincere and fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal the 9th Day of November, in the Thirty ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

By Order of Council,

Samuel Adlam, Mayor.

[Preſented by Joſhua Smith, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Stratford upon Avon, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly approach your Majeſty's Throne with our moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late outrageous and wicked Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon.

We feel ſo ſenſibly the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, and are ſo deeply impreſſed with the Benefits ariſing from our happy Conſtitution, that we cannot omit this Opportunity of humbly entreating your Majeſty to take the moſt effectual Meaſures for bringing to condign Puniſhment the Authors and Abettors of the late impious Attack on your Majeſty's Royal Perſon. And we further moſt humbly implore your Majeſty, as the principal Means of maintaining the Bleſſings we enjoy, to ſuppreſs all ſeditious Societies and Clubs, which tend only to the Support of Irregularity and Diſorder, and to the Subverſion of your Majeſty's good and gracious Government; and in this Hope we are ſatisfied we ſhall be ſeconded by all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, this 6th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Volunteer Cavalry of the County of Surrey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal and grateful Subjects, the Volunteer Cavalry of Gentlemen and Yeomen of the County of Surry, have have heard, with Horror and Indignation, of the atrocious Attempt made by a Number of deſperate Traitors on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon. We congratulate ourſelves and our Country on ſo great and providential a Deliverance. In the Preſervation of your Royal Perſon we look for the Preſervation of every Thing valuable to us as Engliſhmen, as Chriſtians, and as Men. We know that your Majeſty, far from being the Author of any Invaſion of our Laws, has been uniformly the zealous and ſteady Guardian of our Rights and Liberties, Religious and Civil. We have but too much Reaſon to apprehend that this nefarious Attempt is one of the wicked Doctrines authoritavely taught and ſyſtematically embodied into a practical Scheme, in the Territories occupied by the Enemies of your Crown and Kingdom. The ſame Doctrines, with Aſſociations formed to regulate, and Correſpondences formed to ſpread them, have, with the moſt criminal Induſtry, been diſſeminated in ſeveral Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions; and although we and a very great Majority of your Majeſty's Subjects are totally averſe to theſe Doctrines and Practices, yet we are not inſenſible to the Miſchiefs which may ariſe from the Adoption of impious and traiterous Principles, even by a ſmall Number of daring and deſperate Men.

Conſcious of the Value of Morality, Law and good Government, we have voluntarily, but under your Majeſty's juſt Authority, been armed and arrayed to defend ourſelves, our Families and Fellow Subjects againſt all Attempts to overturn ſocial Order and our glorious Conſtitution. We here ſolemnly engage ourſelves to your Majeſty, and to one another, that we ſhall employ our Arms with Zeal and Firmneſs, if unhappily we ſhould be compelled to reſort to them, againſt all ſuch ſacrilegious Aſſaſſins, and all their Counſellors, Abettors and Encouragers.

Sir, your Majeſty's Magnanimity, and your juſt Confidence in the Affections of the incomparably greater Part of your happy and grateful Subjects, have perhaps neglected too much ſome of thoſe prudent Precautions which have been uſed by great Perſonages on whoſe Lives the Felicity of Nations has depended; but we truſt that the ſame Principle of Love to your People, which has been the Characteriſtic of your Majeſty's Government, will induce your Majeſty to attend to the Wiſhes of your faithful Subjects in guarding againſt the malignant Phrenzy of ſome deſperately wicked Perſons, from the Intermixture of whom the beſt diſpoſed People can never promiſe themſelves to be wholly free, nor the beſt conducted Governments wholly ſecure; and we pour forth our ardent Prayers to that Omnipotent Being by whom Kings reign, that He will long preſerve your Majeſty in perfect Satisfaction, Security and Honour, to diffuſe Happineſs over a People who ſhall ſhew themſelves deſerving to be ruled by ſuch a Sovereign.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Lord Leſlie.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, comprizing the Shropſhire Troop of Gentlemen and Yeomanry Cavalry, being impreſſed with the moſt zealous and affectionate Regard for your Majeſty, and feeling the utmoſt Abhorrence at the late moſt daring and wicked Attack upon your Majeſty's Perſon, beg Leave to offer this our humble Addreſs to expreſs the Satisfaction we feel at your Majeſty's happy and providential Deliverance, and at the ſame Time to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready to ſtep forward with our Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Majeſty, and in Defence of the Laws and Conſtitution under which we ſo happily live.

[Preſented by Captain Cladde.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Sixth Weſtern Diviſion of Somerſet Yeomen Cavalry, who have united to the Character which we hold in Civil Life a Military one in the Defence of your Majeſty, in Support of Order and good Government, cannot refrain from expreſſing our Indignation at the Inſult lately offered to your Sacred Perſon, and moſt humbly congratulate your Majeſty, and are thankful to Almighty God for the Preſervation of a Life on which the Safety and Happineſs of theſe Realms, and the Preſervation of our Conſtitution depend: We ſhall ever be ready to fight in Defence of your Majeſty as Part of that Conſtitution, and truſt that Providence will ever continue to protect your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon.

[Preſented by Major Somerville.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Heritors of the County of Eaſt Lothian, in our General adjourned Seſſions aſſembled,

BEG Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our Indignation and Abhorrence at the late daring Outrages offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, when meeting your Parliament. It is with the utmoſt Concern we find that there are Perſons within your Majeſty's Dominions ſo inſenſible to the Happineſs of our Conſtitution, and to the Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Government, as to be guilty of ſo atrocious and flagitious an Attempt. While with unfeigned Loyalty we congratulate your Majeſty and your People on your providential Eſcape, we beg Leave to expreſs our Gratitude to Almighty God, the wiſe Diſpoſer of Events, for mercifully ſhielding and protecting your ſacred Perſon, and preſerving a Life ſo dear to us in the Hour of Danger. Permit us alſo to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall at all Times feel it our Duty and our Inclination, by every Exertion in our Power, to defend your ſacred Perſon, and to ſupport our Conſtitutional Government; and we truſt that your Majeſty, with the Advice of your Parliament, will adopt ſuch Meaſures as will effectually inſure and preſerve Peace and good Order over the Whole of your Majeſty's Dominions.

Signed in the Preſence and by Order of the Meeting. TWEEDALE, Preſes.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and loyal Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, in Conjunction with with the univerſal Voice of an affectionate People, with Sentiments of the moſt unſhaken Duty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and with our ſincere and heart-felt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the late moſt atrocious and violent Outrage offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, as well as to the Laws and Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms; an Outrage which we cannot reflect upon without the utmoſt Horror and Aſtoniſhment. Thankful as we are to Divine Providence that ſuch a daring Attempt has proved abortive, we are gratified by the Conviction that it will afford your Majeſty the Satisfaction of receiving additional Proofs of the unalterable Loyalty, Affection and Attachment of every Claſs of your Majeſty's Subjects to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

That Heaven may preſerve your Majeſty and theſe Kingdoms from foreign Enemies and domeſtic Traitors, and that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free, loyal and grateful People, are the ſincere and fervent Prayers of your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough, Town and Manor of Bideford, in the County of Devon, and it's Neighbourhood.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough, Town and Manor of Bideford, in the County of Devon, and it's Neighbourhood, beg Leave to offer our moſt heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Preſervation from the daring Attack of wicked and miſguided Men, and thankfully to acknowledge the ſignal Providence of God in fruſtrating their Attempts; and at the ſame Time to declare our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of thoſe villainous and atrocious Deſigns which were formed againſt your ſacred Perſon.

And we alſo take this Occaſion to aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Zeal and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, which we will defend with our utmoſt Power, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all your Enemies, foreign or domeſtic.

Guildhall, Bideford, Nov. 5, 1795.

[Preſented by J. Clevland, Eſq;]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals and Maſters of the Univerſity of St. Andrew's, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our warmeſt Congratulations upon your Majeſty's Deliverance from a late alarming Danger.

We feel the higheſt Indignation at the violent Outrage committed againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and the daring Inſult thereby offered to the ſupreme Legiſlative Authority of theſe Kingdoms. When we reflect that the Exerciſe of your Royal Prerogative, the Adminiſtration of your Government, and the Example of your amiable Virtues, have conſtantly and harmoniouſly united to ſecure the Proſperity and Happineſs of all your Subjects, we are filled with Aſtoniſhment that any Perſons ſhould be found ſo loſt to all Senſe of Virtue, and ſo ungrateful for the inеſtimable Bleſſings they enjoy, as to conceive the atrocious Deſign, which, by a gracious Interpoſition of Divine Providence, was happily defeated.

Entruſted as we are with the important Charge of directing the Education of Youth, it ſhall, at all Times, be our Study and Endeavour to inſtil into the Minds of thoſe committed to our Care ſuch Sentiments of Loyalty to the beſt of Sovereigns, and ſuch a Veneration for our happy Conſtitution, as, by the Bleſſing of God, may prove inſtrumental in diſſeminating over this Part of your Majeſty's Dominions a juſt Abhorrence of all Sedition and Conſpiracy, and an unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Signed in our Name, and at our Appointment, by Henry Dundas, Chancellor.

THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Right Honarable Lord Grenville, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble and unanimous Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Town of Beverley, in the Eaſt Riding of the County of York, aſſembled in Common Council the 4th Day of November, 1795.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY impreſſed with Gratitude for the invaluable Bleſſings we have ſo long enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of Beverley, cannot forbear to expreſs our Grief and Indignation at the late daring and ſeditious Attack on your Majeſty in that Exerciſe of your Royal Function which forms ſo eſſential a Part of our happy Conſtitution.

Permit us, however, Sire, to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from the Violence and Outrage of a miſguided Populace.

Anxious as we muſt feel for the Safety of your Majeſty, on which the Welfare of your People ſo much depends, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty we ſhall ever moſt ſtrenuouſly ſupport and defend your Perſon and Government; and that it is our moſt fervent Prayer, that your Majeſty may long continue to be the Object of the Divine Favour and Protection.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Heretors of the County of Fife, in a General Meeting aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Heretors of the County of Fife, deeply impreſſed with a juſt Senſe of the Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's benign Reign, humbly approach the Throne to expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, our Indignation at the late diabolical Attempts of a profligate and lawleſs Banditti againſt your Majeſty's Perſon.

We ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from perſonal Injury; an Eſcape in which your Majeſty's Dominions at large are ſo deeply intereſted; and we cordially ſympathize in thoſe Feelings which muſt have ariſen in your Majeſty's Breaſt upon your meeting with ſo foul and unmerited an Attack.

We pledge ourſelves to ſupport the Legiſlature as far as our Situation will admit; and we truſt that thoſe Means, which our excellent Conſtitution has provided, will be exerted with Vigour for the Purpoſe of bringing the Offenders to ſpeedy Juſtice.

We humbly and ſincerely hope that both Houſes of Parliament will take into their moſt ſerious Conſideration, and uſe what Methods may ſeem to them in their Wiſdom fit for ſuppreſſing thoſe daring and illegal Meetings ſo frequently held of late in and around the Metropolis, which can tend to no Good, moral or political; but, on the contrary, originate from the baſe Machinations of a few deſigning Men, who, having nothing to loſe, and little to fear, mean, by impoſing upon the Ignorance of the loweſt Orders of your Majeſty's People, to ſubvert all regular Government, and to prey upon the Property of the more reſpectable Claſſes of your Majeſty's Subjects.

Signed, in Name and by Appointment of the ſaid General Meeting, by MORTON, Præſes.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Launceſton, in the County of Cornwall, humbly requeſt Permiſſion to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your recent Eſcape from the daring Outrages offered to your Perſon.

We deeply regret, that neither the Comforts which all your Subjects experience from your juſt and mild Government, nor the exalted Virtues which adorn your private Character, have ſufficient Power to diſarm the lawleſs Aſſaſſin; but we devoutly pray and firmly truſt, that the ſame Almighty Being, who has hitherto, in ſeveral Inſtances, preſerved you from the wicked Attempts of your Enemies, will ſtill fruſtrate all their evil Deſigns, and continue to ſhield you with his Divine Protection. And we ſincerely hope that the Meaſures adopted by your Majeſty for the Diſcovery of the Offenders will be the Means of bringing them to condign Puniſhment.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſter and Inhabitants of the Pariſh of St. Mary Magdalen, in the Town of Launceſton, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to preſent our very ſincere Congratulations on your happy Eſcape from the late moſt atrocious Act of Violence and Outrage levelled at your ſacred Perſon.

We want Words to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the villainous Authors and Abettors of it. It is our moſt ardent Prayer, that the ſame protecting Hand of Providence may attend your Majeſty through every ſucceeding Period of your Reign, and that you may long live to be (what you have hitherto been) a Bleſſing to the Nation over which you preſide.

And, as Peace appears to us to be eſſentially neceſſary to the Well-being of the Kingdom in general, we rely on the Goodneſs of your Majeſty's Heart, that you will embrace the firſt favorable Opportunity of effecting that deſirable Event.

[Tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Taunton Loyal Volunteers, inrolled for the Purpoſe of aſſiſting in the Defence of your Majeſty's Dominions from Foreign Invaſion or Internal Commotion, humbly requeſt to expreſs our ſincere Abhorrence of the Principles which produced and the Perſons who were guilty of the late daring and unprovoked Attack on your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, equally to be deteſted as a moſt ungrateful Return to your Majeſty's mild and beneficent Conduct in your high Office, and a moſt traiterous Breach of the Laws and Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms. We moſt heartily congratulate your Majeſty, and conſider it as a Matter of Congratulation to the Nation at large, that your Majeſty ſo happily eſcaped the threatened Danger; and earneſtly pray, that, ſhould your Majeſty's Enemies dare in future to make any ſimilar Attack, it may be as providentially averted. At the ſame Time we beg to aſſure your Majeſty, that, as we have hitherto done every Thing in our Power towards the Preſervation of Peace and good Order in this Neighbourhood; without adding any Thing to thoſe heavy Expences in which the Preſſure of Affairs muſt neceſſarily involve your Government, ſo (although we, in common with the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, ardently deſire the Reſtoration of Peace in your Majeſty's Dominions, yet) we will continue to uſe our utmoſt united Exertions in the Internal Defence of this Kingdom until a Peace can be obtained on ſo firm and ſolid a Baſis as ſhall equally enſure the future Safety of your Majeſty's Realms and the Honor of the Britiſh Name.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Corps of Royal Glaſgow Volunteers.

SIRE!

WITH the utmoſt Horror and Indignation the Royal Glaſgow Volunteers have heard of the late atrocious Attack upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon

Perſon. This daring Outrage they conſider as the deſperate Effort of a few infatuated Men, incapable of truly prizing thoſe manifold Bleſſings which they might enjoy under your Majeſty's paternal Care, and undeſerving of the Rights and Privileges which are ſecured to them by thoſe Laws they have violated, and by that Government which they have wickedly attempted to ſubvert.

Inſpired with Sentiments of the moſt ardent Loyalty to your Majeſty, and of the moſt determined Attachment to the Conſtitution, the Royal Glaſgow Volunteers preſume to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Arms which your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to confide to them are in the Hands of Men who are animated with one Spirit, and who feel themſelves bound, by the ſacred Principles of Honour and of Duty, to hazard Life and Fortnne in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

That Almighty God may take your Majeſty under His ſpecial Protection; that every Deſign hoſtile to your Majeſty may prove abortive, and that merited Puniſhment may ſpeedily overtake the Guilty, is the earneſt Prayer of,

SIRE,

Your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Officers, Non-Commiſſioned Officers, and Private Gentlemen of the Royal Glaſgow Volunteers.
